Consumers, carers, clinicians and community working together

Thursday 24 November 2022

Department of Health

PalliativeCare
WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Objectives

1. Provide an opportunity for clinicians, service providers and the community to interact with political and service leaders to discuss future priorities for quality palliative care in WA.
2. Present international, national, and local evidence and experience to inform the delivery of quality palliative care in WA.
3. Embed the voice of lived experience.
4. Champion the role of carers, families, aged care providers and community, including the compassionate community approach, in the delivery of quality palliative care in WA.
5. Present emerging new ideas and service innovation within the palliative care sector.
6. Provide an opportunity for attendees to be actively engaged in personal reflections and conversations about dying, death, grief, and loss.
