

Community Information – Online Forums

Palliative Care WA is holding a series of online forums for members of the community. Each will aim to increase your understanding of the topic and provide opportunity to get your questions answered by our experts.

All forums are FREE to attend. Once you register, we will be in touch to provide a Zoom log-in as well as some additional resources and tips to ensure you are well prepared for the session.

For more information and the links to register for each of these forums, go to the events page of our website: <https://palliativecarewa.asn.au/events/>.
